Authentic press with long embrace of the XVIIth century, forest and panoramas on the estuary.

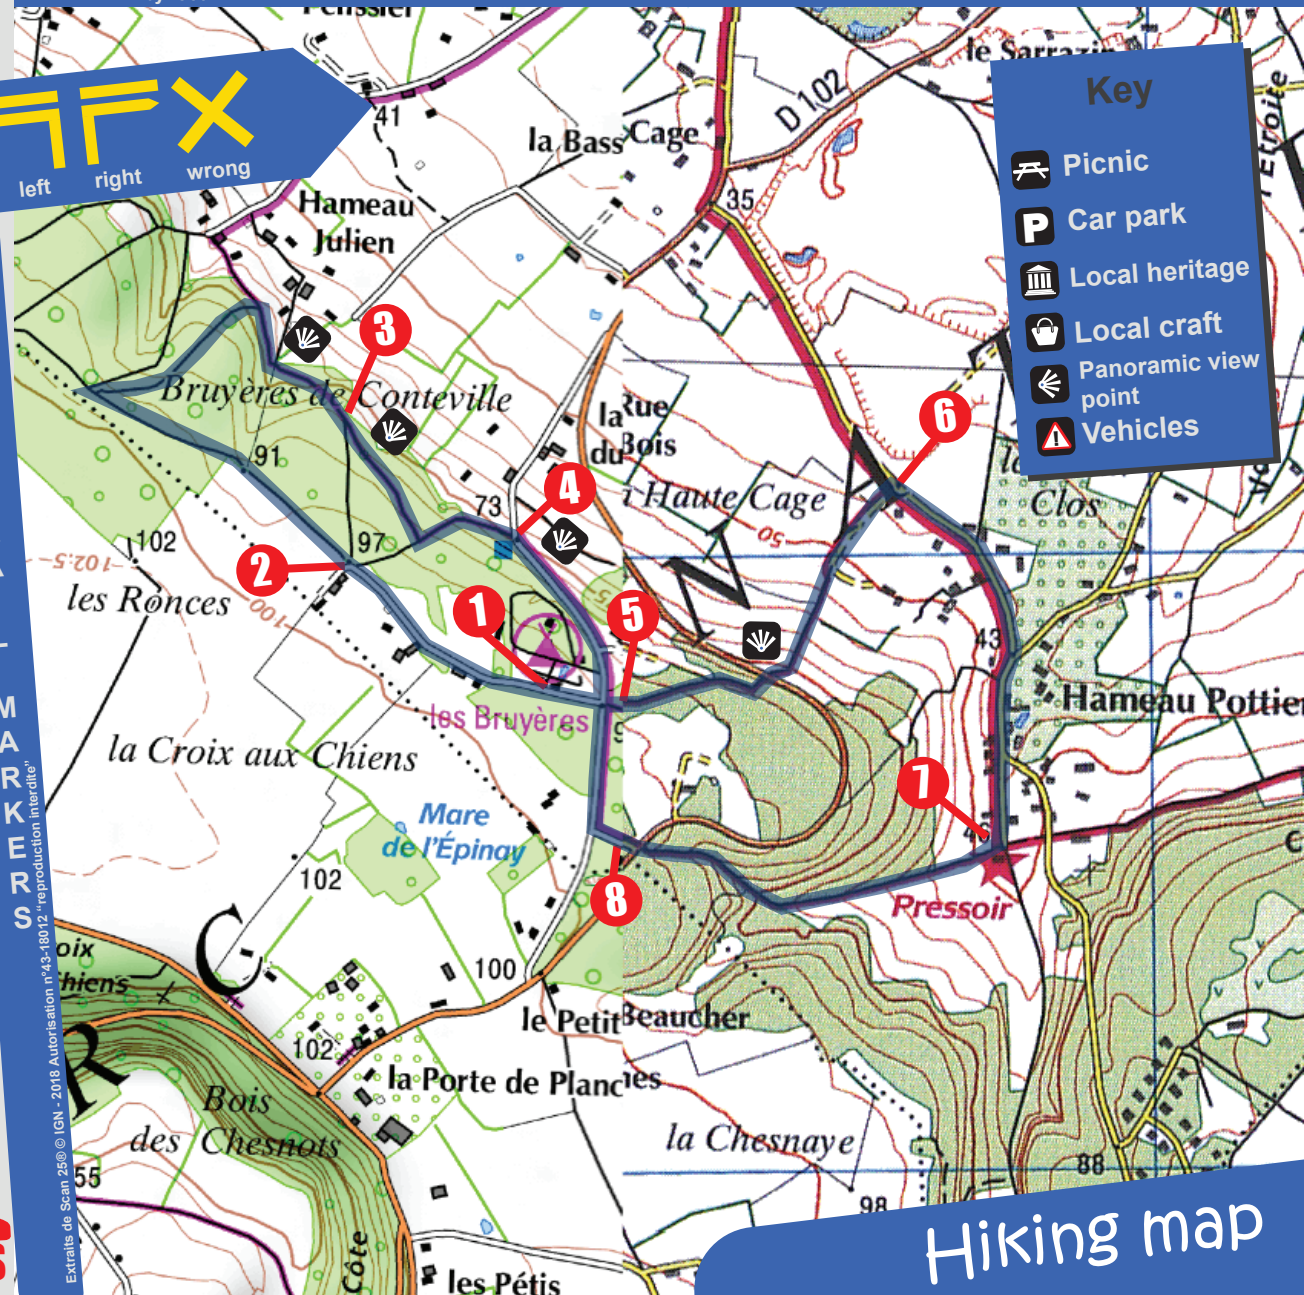

- 1 Back at the entrance of the campsite, go to the right along the small road and continue on the dirt road straight between forest and bocage.
- 2 Arrived in the forest, turn to the first path on the right. Down, you can have a short break in front of the view of the estuary (Julien hamlet), then turn right.
- 3 At the fork, go up to the left. At the top, turn left to go down to the water tank.
- 4 There, in front of a new panorama, go up the small road on the right.
- 5 At the top, take the path on the left that goes down into the woods. Then, cross the road and continue opposite in a hollow path which reveals a new panorama.
- 6 At the bottom, take the road to the right. In Pottier hamlet, continue straight ahead.
- 7 At the old cider press, go up to the right by the hollow path. At mid slope, turn right to enter inside the forest.
- 8 At the top, continue straight ahead, then right at the sign Les Ronces. Finally, find the campsite to the left.
